RACE-PROVEN AND INSPIRED.

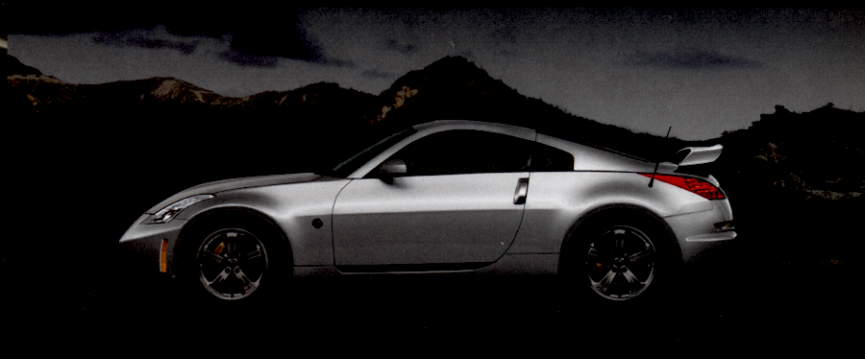

Pre-production model shown.

The JGTC Japanese Grand Touring Car Championship (newly renamed Super GT) – one of the most fiercely competitive series in motorsports. The first overall champion was a NISMO, and we've never looked back, beating Porsche, Ferrari, Honda, and Toyota along the way. And now, some of the same technology that won there is available for the most discriminating drivers here.

Mechanical:
306-hp 3.5-liter V6
6-speed close-ratio manual transmission
Brembo® brakes with 4-piston front/2-piston rear calipers
NISMO-tuned sport suspension for improved cornering and steering response
Front and rear body dampers to absorb vibration and enhance steering feel
Additional body welds and structural supports to increase rigidity
NISMO-tuned exhaust with large-diameter exhaust tips

Exterior:
Extended front fascia for added down-force
Front chin spoiler to reduce lift
Reshaped grille opening for smoother airflow
Rear spoiler to increase down-force
Functional rear diffuser to increase down-force
NISMO super-lightweight forged 18" front/19" rear wheels with Bridgestone® Potenza® RE050A ultra-high performance tires

Interior:
Numbered NISMO etched aluminum plaque on center console
Red stitching on steering wheel and door trim
Red cloth seat inserts
NISMO contrasting color tachometer face

COMING SUMMER 2007.
